This country, formerly the New Hebrides a British /French Condominium is a series of islands with few towns. The largest town is Port Vila on Efate, with some 18,905 souls. Island populations are as follows:

Ambae- Maewo:	10,945	Epi	3,626	Santo	11,416
Ambrym	7,189	Fanafo	2,215	Shepards	3,975
Ancityum	543	Futuna	431	Tanna	19,825
Aniwa	361	Luganville	6,965	Torres Is	5,985
Big Bay	2,067	Malakula:	19,289
Efate:	30,422	Malo	2,879
(Port Vila	18,905)	Paama	1,696
Erromango	1,254	Pentecost:	11,336

Information provided by the Bureau of Statistics, Port Vila.

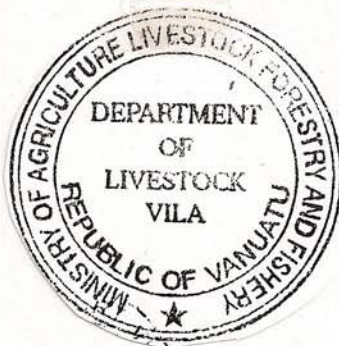

Postally, there is little mail (as far as I have been able to ascertain) that does not emanate from Port Vila, Santo, or Luganville . The reason for this I am led to believe is that most people do not trust the postal service outside and give the mail to pilots who will post them in these three towns.

I have broken down the various governmental agencies as follows:
