The coming turn of the century has inspired ... THE ULTIMATE STAMP COLLECTION OF THE 20TH CENTURY!
Bring it home now.

No other stamp collection can tell the story of the 20th Century like this one. This Eye-witness to History Collection starts April 15, 1997, with the Decade of New Possibilities. Inspired by the years 1900-1909, a complete sheet of 15 stamps highlights key events and people that put their stamp on history — from China’s Boxer Rebellion to the Wright Brothers’ first powered flight. Then, on October 15, 1997, the second sheet of 15 stamps — the Decade of Revolution and Great War — will bring to life the years 1910-1919, from the tragic voyage of the Titanic to the first shots of the “War to End all Wars.”

The unique collection continues in 1998 with three sheetlets depicting the fascinating 1920s, 30s and 40s. In 1999, there are three more sheetlets that capture the unforgettable 50s, 60s and 70s. And in the year 2000, The 20th Century will reach its grand finale with two sheetlets highlighting the dramatic 80s and 90s. Order the Decade of New Possibilities today and we’ll reserve the complete series in your name. Each sheetlet will be sent on approval at Face Value — just as soon as it’s issued. If you’ve lived in The 20th Century, you owe yourself the ultimate stamp collection of The 20th Century.

A shipping and handling charge is added to each shipment.
